About Us

Leoliffe Events is a premier event management company founded in 2024 by Valence Chantal Minishi. With a lifelong passion for event creation, Valence realized the potential to turn her vision into reality by providing top-tier services to clients seeking memorable and flawless occasions.

The company name is a heartfelt tribute to Valence's parents, Leonida and Wycliffe, who shared a similar passion for hosting beautiful events. Inspired by their legacy, Leoliffe Events is committed to creating events that stand out for their elegance, style, and meticulous organization.

At Leoliffe Events, we believe every event is unique. Whether you are hosting a corporate function, a wedding, or a private party, we ensure that every detail aligns with your vision, creating a memorable experience for you and your guests

CEO Message

“At Leoliffe Events, I have always believed in the power of a beautifully crafted event to leave lasting memories. From a young age, I learned the importance of organization, elegance, and the art of bringing people together from my parents. With these values ingrained in my approach, I founded Leoliffe Events to provide a platform for clients to experience top-tier event planning without breaking their budgets.

I am proud to lead a team that upholds professionalism, creativity, and attention to detail. Each event we create is a work of art, tailored to your specific needs and preferences. We partner with trusted suppliers and service providers who share our commitment to delivering perfection.

I invite you to join us on this exciting journey and trust Leoliffe Events to deliver your next unforgettable event. ”

— Valence Chantal Minishi, Founder & CEO
